

DELIGHTING GUESTS TO A COLOURFUL FESTIVITY THIS DIWALI AN INFUSION OF VIBRANT CULTURE AND CUISINE

The Festival of Light, also known as Diwali is a colourful affair like the other myriad celebrations in Malaysia. One of the key focus of these celebration is definitely the potpourri of culture and cuisine that vibrantly showcased to all. This year, Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai is marking Diwali with a unique celebration of a galaxy of festive dishes. With a unique combination of ingredients, Indian cuisine is enjoyed by many and is widely appreciated for its rich use of herbs and spices as well as it incorporates a whole palette of flavors – sweet, sour, spicy, tangy – all at once.

Leading up to this celebration, Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai's Kingfisher Restaurant is having a lavish Indian Buffet fit for a "Maharaja". From the famous tandoori chicken to oven baked Naan bread, Chicken Tikka Masala to Makani Dhal, Chana Masala to Aloo Gobi, there are various flavours to suit any palate. Savour the dynamic blend of spices signature of Indian cuisine and usher in the Festival of Lights with the warm hospitality of the Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai from 25 – 31 October for only RM138nett / adult.

To further express an air of festivity, guests were welcomed by a multi-hued Rangoli art / koalam at the main lobby of Nexus Resort & Spa Karambunai. According to the General Manager, En Muhammad Irwan Goh kolam-making or also known as rangoli art is an annual affair that is carried out by the hotel workforce.

In the spirit of harmony, the resort's workforce from different religious backgrounds worked diligently on the rangoli with meticulous care. After hours of sheer patience and effort, the intricate hand-crafted motifs was ready to greet the resort guests.

"Being a multicultural nation, we decided to make this Indian folk art an annual practice at the resort as it is an excellent opportunity to share the beauty and uniqueness of the country's cultures with our resort guests from all over the world. This practice is also a great opportunity to inspire unity among our staff as they work hand-in-hand in completing the rangoli," he said.
